

San Antonio Housing Authority, Texas
Director of Human Resources and Employee Development

The San Antonio Housing Authority (SAHA) is among the largest housing authorities in the nation. Created by resolution of the City of San Antonio in 1937, SAHA is governed by a seven-member Board of Commissioners appointed by the Mayor to staggered two-year terms. The agency is committed to serving individuals and families earning less than 30 percent of the area median income by providing and preserving public housing units, creating a safer and healthier environment, and improving the quality of life for more than 65,000 residents. The SAHA owns and manages approximately 6,400 public housing and 6,600 affordable-housing units and administers more than 12,000 federal Housing Choice (Section 8) rental assistance vouchers. SAHA has an annual operating budget of $182 million and current value of more than $500 million in assets, and recently received nearly $20 million in Recovery Act funding. The Director of Human Resources and Employee Development reports to the Public Affairs and Personnel Officer, oversees 11 staff members, and is responsible for overseeing recruitment, employment, compensation and benefits, labor relations, employee training, and employee relations. A Bachelor's Degree with an emphasis in Human Resources, Public Administration, Business Administration, Psychology, Sociology or a related field is required, with a Master's Degree preferred. Candidates must have at least ten years increasingly responsible executive-level experience in human resources, preferably with a public entity; an SPHR certification is preferred. Salary range is $82,576 - $125,840, with starting salary based upon qualifications. The SAHA offers an excellent benefits package.
