

Kitsap County Housing Authority
Executive Director
Salary: DOQ

Located on the picturesque Kitsap Peninsula just a short ferry ride from Seattle, Kitsap County presents an enticing and idyllic mix of urban and rural lifestyles. Founded in 1982, the Kitsap County Consolidated Housing Authority was the first joint county-city housing authority in the state. The Housing Authority serves the entire County (except the City of Bremerton), totaling a population of roughly 180,000. This position represents the rare mix of professional opportunity and challenges with an excellent quality of life.

KCCHA is looking for a passionate Executive Director ready for a new challenge! This highly motivated individual will be active and visible in the community spreading the mission throughout the entire Kitsap region. The Executive Director will be experienced in housing and accustomed to the strict compliance and financial obligations necessary to operate a housing authority. The new leader will be ready to turn around an agency in transition and position the organization for development of future housing and housing programs.

Candidates must have a housing background and must have a demonstrated track record of a creative leadership approach. Candidates should possess significant leadership experience with proven success in an executive management role. The ideal candidate will possess a strategic mind, a clear understanding of complex financial concepts, and an accessible, approachable, personable demeanor. Highly developed skill in working with a governing body of local elected officials is extremely desirable.

Kitsap County Consolidated Housing Authority is an innovative, progressive and equal opportunity employer. Kitsap County Consolidated Housing Authority considers all applicants without regard to race, color, national origin, religion or creed, gender, disability, marital status, familial status, age, sexual orientation and gender identity. All candidates are encouraged to apply.

Interested candidates should send cover letter and resume as soon as possible for immediate consideration to:

Waldron & Company, 1100 Olive Way, Suite 1800, Seattle, WA, 98101, 206.441.4144 – 206.441.5213 (f); info@waldronhr.com.