

Director of Housing Operations

Catholic Housing Services is a provider of housing for poor and vulnerable residents across Western Washington. The DHO is responsible for the successful operation of the permanent housing programs of CHS. The primary emphasis of this position is to achieve occupancy goals, assure compliance with tenant eligibility requirements, prepare and monitor budgets to achieve fiscal goals and positive cash flow, and ensure facilities are properly maintained. The Director will hire, lead and supervise staff of program/property managers to carry out these responsibilities. The position provides leadership for the implementation of best practices and high quality residential experience for our tenants, coordinates supportive services with the Director of Social Services, and supervises such services as part of the housing programs. Visit employment page at ccsww.org for full job description and application information. CHS is an EOE and values diversity in the workplace.
