

CITY OF SEATAC
Affordable Housing Week

WHEREAS, all people should have access to safe, healthy, and affordable homes within communities that provide opportunity; and

WHEREAS, housing stability and staying socially distant from those outside of our household has become our state's core public health strategy; and

WHEREAS, the CDC recognizes safe, healthy, and affordable housing within communities of opportunity as key social determinants of health; and

WHEREAS, the City of SeaTac has begun a Housing Action Plan to study housing needs in the community; and

WHEREAS, City of SeaTac embraces affordable housing with 93% of rental units in the City falling into the affordable housing category; and

WHEREAS, the City is supporting 1400 new housing units proposed to be built in the City within the next three years with a significant number of these units being affordable; and

WHEREAS, everyone benefits from affordable housing, including the people who reside in these properties, their neighbors, schools, businesses, employers, and the community as a whole; and

WHEREAS, united to raise public awareness, people, organizations, and communities throughout King County are participating in local Affordable Housing Week activities to elevate the critical need to create healthy communities with ample affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, the City of SeaTac is committed to helping to ensure that our community recovers from the crises at hand, and that all people in SeaTac live with dignity in safe, healthy, and affordable homes.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Erin Sitterley, Mayor of the City of SeaTac, Washington, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim the week of May 10 - 17, 2021 as Affordable Housing Week in the City of SeaTac.

Signed this 3rd day of May 2021.
