

Advocacy and Mobilization Manager Announcement

The Housing Development Consortium of Seattle-King County (HDC) is hiring an Advocacy and Mobilization Manager to work closely with the Director of Government Relations and Policy, and the policy staff team (including the executive director) to implement HDC's strategic advocacy and policy priorities.

Are you passionate about:

Advancing strategic affordable housing public policy?

Building effective coalitions and collaborating with strategic partners to address mutual concerns?

Working to advance systems change and equitable access to affordable housing?

Organizing and mobilizing people to bring about change?

If your answer is 'Yes!' please see the linked complete job description for further detail.

DESIRED COMPETENCIES

- Minimum of a Bachelor's degree, or 4 years progressively responsible experience in community organizing, coalition management, affordable housing policy or issue campaign advocacy.
- Ability to work effectively with a wide range of stakeholders
- Interest in developing relationships and engaging stakeholders
- Strong commitment to increasing the supply of affordable housing in King County
- Competency in Microsoft Office programs including, Word and Excel
- Strong public speaking and writing skills
- A commitment to public policy advocacy as a social change strategy
- Authentic respect for the official mission of HDC and for the diverse clients, communities, volunteers, donors, and staff who engage in it while able to demonstrate the values and principles of HDC.
- Recognize racial equity issues that require critical thinking through the lens of anti-racism and intersections with poverty and access.

Other

- Valid Washington State driver's license.

Salary range is $65,000-$68,000 annually, depending upon experience and qualifications. Benefits include a prepaid ORCA card, paid vacation and sick leave, comprehensive health insurance and 401k Plan. Mileage and parking compensation for work-related travel using personal vehicles is also available.

Please submit a cover letter and current resume for consideration to hr@housingconsortium.org. This posting is open until filled. The successful candidate will be hired upon identification to start within two weeks of accepting an offer of employment.

HDC is an equal opportunity employer. In carrying out its activities including membership, hiring and program services, the Housing Development Consortium Seattle-King County does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, political orientation, political ideology, age, creed, religion, ancestry, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability.